

ICN Business School articulations

Conditions: must take all courses in the program for the semester there, and must pass all parts listed to get credit for the ISU course articulated. Any ICN hours not used below will count as elective hours toward your Bachelor's degree.

Summer program: students take ISU's INB 245.19 and IDS 133.05 (3 ISU credits each)

Fall program:

- a) MQM 220 – must pass HR Management, Intercultural Management, Change Management, Innovation Management and Entrepreneurship, Corporate Strategy
- b) MKT 200 level elective – must pass Marketing Management, Marketing and E Business, and Logistics and Transportation
- c) INB 245.19 – French Economy, European Union and European Institutions, International Law

OR IDS 133.05 – French Economy, European Union and European Institutions, French Culture and Civilization

- d) French language– as determined by French faculty in LLC Dept.

Spring Program:

- a) IDS 133.05 Doing Business with European Countries and People, French Culture and Civilization, New Global Geopolitical Challenges

OR INB 245.19 Doing Business with European Countries and People, New Global Geopolitical Challenges, International Business Seminars, International Negotiation

- b) MKT 200 level elective – International Marketing, Marketing Business Game, Corporate Communication
- c) French language-as determined by French faculty in LLC Dept.

Full Year ONLY:

If the student does the full year and successfully completes all the courses, the student can get credit for MQM 220, 2 distinct MKT 200 level electives, IDS 133.05, INB 245.19 and French credit as determined by the LLC Dept.

Additionally, the student can get credit for INB 225 by completing all of the following: Intercultural Management, International Law, Cycle of Conferences 1, International Business Seminars, Cycle of conferences 2, and Bachelor's Thesis

Successful completion of full year with Bachelor's Thesis can result in the student getting the Bachelor's of Business degree from ICN after their ISU degree is granted.